

Gender, Development and Public Policy Studies in the Asian Context

Kyoko Kusakabe
Asian Institute of Technology

The project

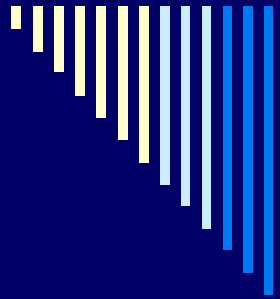

- Student exchange
- Faculty visits
- International conference
- Distance education modules
- Proposal writing workshop

- Partnership with AIT, Leeds University UK, and ISS, the Hague.

Enabling factors

- ❑ Understanding partners.
 - ❑ Experience in regional projects/ conferences.
 - ❑ Support from the institute.
 - ❑ Initiation meeting with partners.
 - ❑ Two faculty member from each partner institute.
 - ❑ Series of activity that needs intensive collaboration (visits, panels, research proposal writing).
 - continuation of student exchange & joint research project without EU support.
-

Merit and difficulties of being a project leader

□ Merit

- Building up equal relationship.
- Administrative work cost.

□ Difficulties

- Unfamiliarity with the system
- Contribution
- Faculty time in European Universities.